14 SEC. 229. ENHANCING REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT AND 15 MAINTAINING THE UNITED STATES COMMIT-
16 MENT TO REFUGEES.

17                  (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following
18 findings:

19                  (1) The United States has a longstanding tradi-
20 tion of providing refugee assistance and relief through 21 the Department of State’s migration and refugee as- 22 stance account for refugees throughout the world
23 who have been subjected to religious and other forms
24 of persecution.

(2) A strong refugee resettlement and assistance program is a critical component of the United States' strong commitment to freedom.

(3) The United States refugee admissions program has been in decline for much of the last five years, resulting in a chronic inability of the United States to meet the ceiling on refugee admissions that has been set by the President each year.

9                   (4) Refugee applicants have always undergone 10                   rigorous security screenings. The September 11, 2001,
11                   terrorist attacks on the United States has rightfully 12                   increased the awareness of the need to ensure that all 13                   aliens seeking admission to the United States would 14                   not endanger the United States.

(5) Private voluntary organizations and non-governmental organizations (NGOs) have and continue to provide valuable information to State Department officials for refugee processing, and along with Embassy personnel, can be utilized to assist in the preliminary screening of refugees so that State Department officials can focus to a greater extent on security.

(6) Currently there are 15 million refugees worldwide. In order to meet the ceiling set by the Administration, which has been 70,000 in recent years,

1        a broader cross-section could be considered for resettlement in the United States if the Department of State were to expand existing refugee processing priority categories in a reasonable and responsible manner. Expansion of refugee selection should include the expanded use of both the existing category reserved for refugees of special interest to the United States as well as the existing categories reserved for family reunification.

10        (b) PURPOSE.—It is the purpose of this section to provide the Department of State with tools to enable it to carry out its responsibilities with greater efficiency with respect to the identification and processing of refugee applicants.

14        (c) ENHANCEMENT OF REFUGEE IDENTIFICATION AND PROCESSING.—

16                (1) In addition to traditional agencies currently used in the processing of refugees for admission to the United States, where applicable, the Secretary shall develop and utilize partnerships with voluntary resettlement organizations that permit such organizations to assist in the identification and referral of refugees.

22                (2) In addition to traditional agencies currently used in the processing of refugees for admission to the United States, where applicable, the Secretary shall utilize private voluntary organizations with ties to

1       domestic constituencies in the overseas processing of 2       refugees.

3           (3) In addition to traditional agencies currently 4       used in the processing of refugees for admission to the 5       United States, where applicable, the Secretary shall 6       establish refugee response teams.

7           (A) ESTABLISHMENT OF REFUGEE RE-
8       SPONSE TEAMS.—In order to make the proc-
9       essing of refugees more efficient and effective, en-
10      hance the quality of refugee resettlement pro- 11      grams, and to augment the capacity of the 12      United States government to identify, process,
13      assist, and counsel individuals for eventual adju-
14      dications by the Department of Homeland Secu-
15      rity as refugees, where applicable, the Secretary
16      shall establish and utilize the services of Refugee 17      Response Teams, (in this section referred to as 18      “RRTs”). RRTs shall be coordinated by the As- 19      stant Secretary of State for Population, Refu-
20      gees, and Migration, or the Assistant Secretary’s 21      designee.

22           (B) COMPOSITION OF THE RRTS.—RRTs
23      shall be comprised of representatives of non-

1            untary organizations that have experience in ref-
2            ugee law, policy and programs.

3            (C) RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE RRTS.—
4            RRTs shall be responsible for—

6                    a view toward identifying those refugees
7                    whose best durable solution is third country
8                    resettlement;

9                    (ii) preparing profiles and documenta-

20 SEC. 431. SHORT TITLE.

21 This subtitle may be cited as the “United States Inter- 22 national Leadership Act of 2003”.

23 SEC. 432. FINDINGS.

24 The Congress makes the following findings:

25 (1) International organizations and other multi-
26 lateral institutions play a key role in United States

1     foreign policy and serve key United States foreign 2     policy objectives, such as obligating all countries to 3     freeze assets of terrorist groups, preventing the pro-
4     liferation of chemical, biological, and nuclear weap-
5     ons, and spearheading the fight to combat the ravages
6     of HIV/AIDS and other infectious diseases.

7             (2) Decisions at many international organiza-
8     tions, including membership and key positions, re- 9     main subject to determinations made by regional 10    groups where democratic states are often in the mi-
11    nority and where there is intensive cooperation 12    among repressive regimes. As a result, the United 13    States has often been blocked in its attempts to take 14    action in these institutions to advance its goals and 15    objectives, including at the United Nations Human 16    Rights Commission (where a representative of Libya
17    was elected as chairman and the United States tem- 18    porarily lost a seat).

19            (3) In order to address these shortcomings, the 20    United States must actively work to improve the 21    workings of international organizations and multilat- 22    eral institutions, particularly by creating a caucus of 23    democratic countries that will advance United States
24    interests. In the Second Ministerial Conference of the 25    Community of Democracies in Seoul, Korea, on No-

1        vember 10–20, 2002, numerous countries rec-
2        ommended working together as a democracy caucus in 3        international organizations such as the United Na-
4        tions and ensuring that international and regional 5        institutions develop and apply democratic standards
6        for member states.

7            (4) In addition, the United States has short- 8        changed its ability to influence these organizations by 9        failing to obtain enough support for positions that are 10       congruent to or consistent with United States objec- 11       tives and has not done enough to build expertise in 12       the United States Government in the area of multilat- 13       eral diplomacy.

14    SEC. 433. ESTABLISHMENT OF A DEMOCRACY CAUCUS.

15        (a) IN GENERAL.—The President of the United States,
16       acting through the Secretary of State and the relevant
17       United States chiefs of mission, shall seek to establish a de-
18       mocracy caucus at the United Nations, the United Nations
19       Human Rights Commission, the United Nations Conference
20       on Disarmament, and at other broad-based international 21       organizations.

22        (b) PURPOSES OF THE CAUCUS.—A democracy caucus
23       at an international organization should—

24            (1) forge common positions, including, as appro-
25       priate, at the ministerial level, on matters of concern

1       before the organization and work within and across
2       regional lines to promote agreed positions;

3           (2) work to revise an increasingly outmoded sys-
4       tem of regional voting and decision making; and

5           (3) set up a rotational leadership scheme to pro-
6       vide member states an opportunity, for a set period 7       of time, to serve as the designated president of the 8       caucus, responsible for serving as its voice in each or- 9       ganization.

10 SEC. 434. ANNUAL DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS ON MULTILAT- 11 ERAL ISSUES.

12       The Secretary of State, acting through the principal
13 officers responsible for advising the Secretary on inter-
14 national organizations, shall ensure that a high-level dele-
15 gation from the United States Government, on an annual 16 basis, is sent to consult with key foreign governments in 17 every region in order to promote the United States agenda
18 at key international fora, such as the United Nations Gen-
19 eral Assembly, United Nations Human Rights Commission,
20 the United Nations Education, Science, and Cultural Orga-
21 nization, and the International Whaling Commission.

4 leadership and, in appropriate cases for membership,
5 at all United Nations bodies and at other inter-

7 to which the United States is a member so as to ex-
8 clude nations that violate the principles of the specific 9 organization;

10           (2) make it a policy of the United Nations and 11 other international organizations and multilateral in-
12 stitutions, of which the United States is a member,
13 that a member state may not stand in nomination or 14 be in rotation for a leadership position in such bodies 15 if the member state is subject to sanctions imposed by 16 the United Nations Security Council; and

2           as well as hundreds of news sources with an Internet
3           presence, are routinely being jammed by repressive

13 SEC. 721. SENSE OF CONGRESS RELATING TO EAST TIMOR, 14 JUSTICE, AND REHABILITATION.

15 The Congress—

16 (1) recalls that the United Nations International 17 Commission of Inquiry concluded in January 2000
18 that “the Indonesian Army was responsible for the in- 19 timidation, terror, killings and other acts of violence”
20 during East Timor’s vote for independence in 1999;

21 (2) reiterates that justice for crimes against hu-
22 manity and war crimes committed in East Timor
23 during the vote for independence in 1999 is crucial
24 for peace, reconciliation, and the ongoing nation-
25 building process in East Timor and Indonesia;

1           (3) finds that the ad hoc Human Rights Court
2           on East Timor established by the Indonesian Govern-3           ment in 2001 has inadequately brought to justice the 4           perpetrators of these crimes as eleven of fourteen de-5           fendants have been acquitted as a result of poor in-6           dictments and the absence of an adequate witness pro-
7           tection program, and four of the five sentences im-8           posed have been less than the minimum allowed under 9           the Indonesian Human Rights Law;

10          (4) supports the work of the Joint United Na-
11          tions-East Timor Serious Crimes Unit (SCU), which 12          filed indictments against high-ranking Indonesian of-13          ficers who were allegedly involved in the crimes, in-14          cluding Gen. Wiranto, Maj. Gen. Kiki Syahnakri,
15          Maj. Gen. Zacky Anwar Makarim, Maj. Gen. Adam
16          Damiri, Col. Suratman, Col. Noer Muis, Col. Yayat
17          Sudrajat and former Governor Abilio Soares, and ex-
18          presses its strong disappointment that the Indonesian 19          Government has stated its intention to ignore the in-20          dictments;

21          (5) calls on the State Department and the 22          United States Mission to the United Nations to push 23          for a comprehensive United Nations review of the In-24          donesian ad hoc Human Rights Court on East 25          Timor, including a review of the conduct of trials, the

1 indictment strategy by the prosecutors and its adher-
2 ence to the international standards, and urges the 3 State Department to consider alternative mechanisms
4 of justice for East Timor, including the establishment 5 of an ad hoc international tribunal; and

6 (6) urges the Indonesian Government to fully co-

11 SEC. 722. SENSE OF CONGRESS CONCERNING HUMAN 12 RIGHTS AND JUSTICE IN INDONESIA.

13 The Congress—

14 (1) notes with grave concern that members of the 15 Indonesian security forces, particularly the Army
16 Special Forces (Kopassus) and the Police Mobile Bri-
17 gade (Brimob), continue to commit many serious
18 human rights violations, including extrajudicial
19 killings, torture, rape, and arbitrary detention, par-
20 ticularly in areas of conflict such as Aceh, Papua, the 21 Moluccas, and Central Sulawesi;

22 (2) notes with grave concern that the Govern-
23 ment of Indonesia largely fails to hold soldiers and 24 police accountable for extrajudicial killings and other 25 serious human rights abuses, both past and present;

1           (3) condemns the intimidation and harassment
2           of human rights and civil society organizations and 3           activists by members of Indonesian security forces 4           and by military-backed militia groups, particularly 5           in Aceh and Papua;

6           (4) notes with concern the Indonesian military's 7           resistance to civilian control and oversight, its lack of 8           budgetary transparency, and its continuing emphasis
9           on internal security within Indonesia;

10          (5) urges the Indonesian government and mili-
11          tary to provide full, active, and unfettered coopera-12          tion with the investigation of the Federal Bureau of 13          Investigation of the United States Department of Jus-
14          tice into the August 31, 2002 attack near Timika, 15          Papua, which killed three people (including two 16          Americans, Rick Spier and Ted Burgon), and injured 17          12 others, and which appears likely to have been per-18          petrated at least in part by members of the Indo-19          nesian military;

20          (6) commends the December 2002 signing of the 21          Framework Agreement on Cessation of Hostilities in 22          Aceh, but condemns the recent outbreaks of violence
23          and militia activity that appear calculated to subvert 24          that cease-fire agreement;

1           (7) notes with grave concern the continued deten-
2           tion of Muhammad Nazar, and the fact that those re-
3           sponsible for the murders of other prominent members
4           of civil society in Aceh, such as Jafar Siddiq
5           Hamzah, Sukardi, Sulaiman Ahmad, Tengku Safwan
6           Idris, Nashiruddin Daud, and Zaini Sulaiman, still 7           have not been apprehended, prosecuted, or punished;

8           (8) commends the “Zone of Peace” initiative in 9           Papua, which has brought together civic, religious, 10          governmental, and police representatives to discuss 11          productive means of avoiding conflict, but expresses 12          concern at the refusal of the Indonesian military to 13          participate in that effort; and

14          (9) encourages the Government of Indonesia to 15          expedite the reunification of separated East Timorese
16          children with their families, and to hold legally ac-
17          countable those individuals and organizations respon-
18          sible for taking those children and for obstructing re-19          unification efforts.

20   SEC. 723. AMENDMENT TO THE INTERNATIONAL RELIGIOUS 21                   FREEDOM ACT OF 1998.

22          Section 207(a) of the International Religious Freedom
23   Act of 1998 (22 U.S.C. 6435(a)) is amended by inserting 24   “and for each subsequent fiscal year” after “2003”.

1 SEC. 724. SENSE OF CONGRESS WITH RESPECT TO HUMAN 2 RIGHTS IN CENTRAL ASIA.

3 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following
4 findings:

5 (1) The Central Asian nations of Kazakhstan,
6 Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and 7 Uzbekistan are providing the United States with as- 8 sistance in the war in Afghanistan, from military 9 basing and overflight rights to the facilitation of hu-
10 manitarian relief.

11 (2) In turn, the United States victory over the 12 Taliban in Afghanistan provides important benefits
13 to the Central Asian nations by removing a regime
14 that threatened their security and by significantly
15 weakening the Islamic Movement of Uzbekistan, a ter-
16 rorist organization that had previously staged armed 17 raids from Afghanistan into the region.

18 (3) The United States has consistently urged the 19 nations of Central Asia to open their political systems
20 and economies and to respect human rights, both be- 21 fore and since the attacks of September 11, 2001.

22 (4) Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan,
23 Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan are members of the 24 United Nations and the Organization for Security
25 and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), both of which

1       confer a range of obligations with respect to human 2       rights on their members.

3           (5) While the United States recognizes marked
4       differences among the social structures and commit-
5       ments to democratic and economic reform of the Cen-
6       tral Asian nations, the United States notes neverthe-
7       less, according to the State Department Country Re-
8       ports on Human Rights Practices, that all five gov- 9       ernments of such nations, to differing degrees, restrict 10      freedom of speech and association, restrict or ban the 11      activities of human rights organizations and other 12      nongovernmental organizations, harass or prohibit 13      independent media, imprison political opponents, 14      practice arbitrary detention and arrest, and engage 15      in torture and extrajudicial executions.

16           (6) By continuing to suppress human rights and 17      to deny citizens peaceful, democratic means of ex-
18      pressing their convictions, the nations of Central Asia
19      risk fueling popular support for violent and extremist 20      movements, thus undermining the goals of the war on 21      terrorism.

22           (7) President George W. Bush has made the de- 23      fense of human dignity, the rule of law, limits on the 24      power of the state, respect for women and private 25      property, free speech, equal justice, religious tolerance

1       strategic goals of United States foreign policy in the 2       Islamic world, arguing that “a truly strong nation
3       will permit legal avenues of dissent for all groups that 4       pursue their aspirations without violence”.

5               (8) Congress has expressed its desire to see deeper
6       reform in Central Asia in past resolutions and other 7       legislation, most recently conditioning assistance to 8       Uzbekistan and Kazakhstan on their progress in 9       meeting commitments to the United States on human 10       rights and democracy.

11       (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Con-
12       gress that—

13               (1) the governments of Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan,

21               tions of torture and prosecuting those respon-
22               sible;

23                       (C) permitting the free and unfettered func-
24               tioning of independent media outlets, inde-
25               pendent political parties, and nongovernmental

1           organizations, including by easing registration
2           processes;

3           (D) permitting the free exercise of religious 4           beliefs and ceasing the persecution of members of 5           religious groups and denominations that do not 6           engage in violence or political change through vi-
7           olence;

8           (E) holding free, competitive, and fair elec-
9           tions; and

10          (F) making publicly available documenta-
11          tion of their revenues and punishing those en-
12          gaged in official corruption;

13          (2) the President, the Secretary of State, and the 14          Secretary of Defense should—

15                (A) continue to raise at the highest levels
16                with the governments of the nations of Central 17                Asia specific cases of political and religious per- 18                secution, and to urge greater respect for human 19                rights and democratic freedoms at every diplo-
20                matic opportunity;

21                (B) take progress in meeting the goals speci-
22                fied in paragraph (1) into account when deter-
23                mining the scope and nature of United States
24                diplomatic and military relations and assistance
25                with each of such governments;

1           (C) ensure that the provisions of foreign op-

9           of the United Nations Commission on Human 10          Rights and the so-called "Moscow Mechanism"
11          Report of the Organization for Security and Co-12          operation in Europe (OSCE), respect the right of 13          all prisoners to due process and a fair trial and 14          release democratic activists and their family
15          members from prison;

16          (E) urge the Government of Russia not to 17          extradite to Turkmenistan members of the polit-
18          ical opposition of Turkmenistan;

19          (F) work with the Government of 20          Kazakhstan to create a political climate free of 5   [SEC. 730. SENSE OF CONGRESS ON CLIMATE CHANGE.

6           [(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following
7           findings:

8                   [(1) Evidence continues to build that increases 9                   in atmospheric concentrations of manmade green-
10                  house gases are contributing to global climate change.

11                  [(2) The Intergovernmental Panel on Climate 12                  Change (in this section referred to as the “IPCC”) has 13                  concluded that “there is new and stronger evidence 14                  that most of the warming observed over the last 50 15                  years is attributable to human activities” and that 16                  the Earth’s average temperature can be expected to 17                  rise between 2.5 and 10.4 degrees Fahrenheit in this 18                  century.

19                  [(3) The National Academy of Sciences con- 20                  firmed the findings of the IPCC, stating that “the 21                  IPCC’s conclusion that most of the observed warming 22                  of the last 50 years is likely to have been due to the 23                  increase of greenhouse gas concentrations accurately 24                  reflects the current thinking of the scientific commu-
25                  nity on this issue” and that “there is general agree-

1        ment that the observed warming is real and particu-
2        larly strong within the past twenty years". The Na-
3        tional Academy of Sciences also noted that "because 4        there is considerable uncertainty in current under-
5        standing of how the climate system varies naturally 6        and reacts to emissions of greenhouse gases and 7        aerosols, current estimates of the magnitude of future
8        warming should be regarded as tentative and subject 9        to future adjustments upward or downward".

10        [(4) The IPCC has stated that in the last 40
11        years, the global average sea level has risen, ocean
12        heat content has increased, and snow cover and ice
13        extent have decreased, which threatens to inundate
14        low-lying island nations and coastal regions through- 15        out the world.

16        [(5) In October 2000, a report of the United 17        States interagency Global Change Research Program
18        found that global climate change may harm the

22        [(6) In 1992, the United States ratified the 23        United Nations Framework Convention on Climate

4       Such a level should be achieved within a time-frame

6       climate change, to ensure that food production is not 7       threatened and to enable economic development to 8       proceed in a sustainable manner”.

9               [(7) The UNFCCC stated in part that the Par- 10       ties to the UNFCCC are to implement policies “with 11       the aim of returning . . . to their 1990 levels anthro-

22   SEC. 731. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING MIGRATION
23                   ISSUES BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND 24                   MEXICO.

25          (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds as follows:*

1           (1) During President Bush's first meeting with 2           President Fox in Guanajuato, Mexico, the Presidents
3           stated in the Joint Communique of February 16, 4           2001 that "we are instructing our Governments to en-
5           gage, at the earliest opportunity, in formal high level
6           negotiations aimed at achieving short and long-term
7           agreements that will allow us to constructively ad-
8           dress migration and labor issues between our two 9           countries."

10          (2) During President Fox's official visit to 11          Washington, D.C., the Joint Statement of September 12          6, 2001, summarized the meeting as follows: "The 13          Presidents reviewed the progress made by our joint 14          working group on migration chaired by Secretaries
15          Powell, CastaZeda, and Creel and Attorney General
16          Ashcroft and noted this represented the most fruitful 17          and frank dialogue we have ever had on a subject so
18          important to both nations. They praised implementa-
19          tion of the border safety initiative, and recognized 20          that migration-related issues are deeply felt by our 21          publics and vital to our prosperity, well-being, and 22          the kind of societies we want to build. They renewed
23          their commitment to forging new and realistic ap-
24          proaches to migration to ensure it is safe, orderly,
25          legal and dignified, and agreed on the framework

1       within which this ongoing effort is based. This in-
2       cludes: matching willing workers with willing em-
3       ployers; serving the social and economic needs of both 4       countries; respecting the human dignity of all mi-
5       grants, regardless of their status; recognizing the con-
6       tribution migrants make to enriching both societies;
7       shared responsibility for ensuring migration takes 8       place through safe and legal channels. Both stressed 9       their commitment to continue our discussions, in- 10       structing the high-level working group to reach mutu-
11       ally satisfactory results on border safety, a temporary 12       worker program and the status of undocumented
13       Mexicans in the United States. They requested that 14       the working group provide them proposals with re-
15       spect to these issues as soon as possible. The Presi-
16       dents recognized that this is an extraordinarily chal-
17       lenging area of public policy, and that it is critical 18       to address the issue in a timely manner and with ap- 19       propriate thoroughness and depth.”.

20               (3) On September 7, 2001, during President 21       Fox’s historic State Visit to Washington, the United 22       States and Mexico issued a joint statement instruct- 23       ing our cabinet-level working group to provide us
24       with specific proposals to forge a new and realistic 25       framework that will ensure a safe, legal, orderly, and

1       dignified migration flow between our countries. We 2       have today agreed that our Cabinet level migration 3       group should continue the work we charged it with in 4       Guanajuato and Washington.

5               (4) When the Presidents met in Monterrey, Mex-
6       ico, the Presidents stated in a Joint Statement on 7       March 22, 2002, as follows: "Slightly more than one
8       year ago, in Guanajuato, we talked about migration 9       as one of the major ties that join our societies. We 10       launched then the frankest and most productive dia-
11       logue our countries have ever had on this important
12       and challenging subject. Those talks have continued
13       over the past year, and have yielded a clearer assess-
14       ment of the scope and nature of this issue. This bond 15       between our nations can render countless benefits to 16       our respective economies and families.

17               (5) Over the past year, important progress has 18       been made to enhance migrant safety and particu-
19       larly in saving lives by discouraging and reducing il-
20       legal crossings in dangerous terrain.

21               (6) At the conclusion of the Mexico-United States
22       Binational Commission (BNC) meeting in Mexico
23       City in November 2002, Secretary of State Powell's
24       press conference was summarized by the State De- 25       partment as follows: The BNC's migration working

1       group “affirmed our strong commitment to advancing 2       our bilateral migration agenda,” he stressed, adding 3       that “there should be no doubt in anyone’s mind that 4       this is a priority for President Bush, just as it is a
5       priority for [Mexican] President [Vicente] Fox.”

6           (7) Secretary Powell said no schedule had been 7       established for a migration accord, but he confirmed
8       that the United States and Mexico want to come up
9       with a series of migration initiatives over the course
10      of the next six months to a year.

11          (8) Mexico’s state-run oil monopoly, Petróleos
12      Mexicanos (PEMEX), is inefficient, plagued by cor-
13      ruption, and in need of substantial reform and pri-
14      vate investment in order to provide sufficient petro-
15      leum products to Mexico and the United States to fuel
16      future economic growth which can help curb illegal
17      migration into the United States.

18      (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Con-
19      gress that—

20          (1) that the United States and Mexico should as 21      soon as is practicable commence negotiations in an 22      attempt to reach a migration accord that is as com-
23      prehensive as possible and which addresses the key 24      issues of concern for both nations;

1           (2) that any accord on migration issues between 2           the United States and Mexico should also include an 3           accord to open Petróleos Mexicanos (PEMEX) to in- 4           vestment by U.S. oil companies and specific steps to 5           reform PEMEX's operations to make them more 6           transparent and efficient; and

7           (3) that as part of any migration agreement be- 8           tween the United States and Mexico, the issues of the 9           extradition of violent criminals and law enforcement
10          cooperation between the two nations be addressed.

14          The Congress—

15           (1) recognizes the importance of United States
16           humanitarian assistance to Palestinian refugees as an 17           essential component to the peace process in the Middle 18           East;

19           (2) acknowledges the hardships endured by many 20           innocent Palestinian refugees in the West Bank and 21           Gaza Strip and in other neighboring countries;

22           (3) notes that the United Nations High Commis-
23           sion for Refugees (UNHCR) is the international body 24           that seeks to find “lasting solutions” to the plight of 25           refugees throughout the world, with the sole exception

1       of the Palestinians, for whose exclusive benefit a spe-
2       cial agency, the United Nations Relief and Works
3       Agency (UNRWA), was established in 1950 and 4       which makes no effort to permanently resettle Pales-
5       tinian refugees, even those who reside under the juris-
6       isdiction of the Palestinian Authority, in order to en-
7       sure the perpetuation of the problem of Palestinian
8       refugees;

9           (4) recognizes that the United States has been the 10       world's leading donor to UNRWA, having provided 11       over $2,500,000,000 to UNRWA since 1950, including 12       the provision of $110,000,000, in fiscal year 2002,
13       and that such organization has provided important
14       humanitarian assistance to the Palestinian people;

15          (5) notes that the United States contribution to 16       UNRWA is nearly 10 times that of the entire Arab 17       world, and calls on Arab states to assume a greater 18       share of the burden for financing UNWRA;

19          (6) expresses its outrage over credible reports
20       that UNRWA facilities have been used for terrorist 21       training and bases for terrorist operations, with little 22       attempt by the UNRWA to stop or oppose such at- 23       tacks or alert relevant law enforcement authorities 24       about such terrorist activities;

1           (7) expresses deep concern over the textbooks and 2           educational materials used in the UNRWA edu-
3           cational system that promote anti-Semitism, denial of 4           the existence and the right to exist of the state of 5           Israel, and exacerbate stereotypes and tensions be-6           tween the Palestinians and Israelis;

7           (8) strongly urges the Secretary General of the 8           United Nations to immediately take steps to com-
9           prehensively reform the UNRWA so that it actively 10          works to oppose terrorist attacks and actively works 11          to promote reconciliation and understanding between 12          the Israelis and Palestinians;

13          (9) strongly urges UNRWA to meet the require-14          ments, in letter and spirit, of section 301(c) of the 15          Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, including by com-16          prehensively ensuring that no UNRWA assistance is 17          rendered to anyone who has been involved with ter-
18          rorism at any time and that all UNRWA bene-19          ficiaries be informed at the earliest possible time, and 20          at regular intervals thereafter, that anyone involved 21          with terrorism thereafter will be ineligible for 22          UNRWA benefits;

23          (10) strongly urges the Secretary of State to 24          make UNRWA reforms a priority at the United Na-
25          tions by actively campaigning within the United Na-

1        tions to support such reforms, including comprehen-

7        teaching materials that promote Israeli-Palestinian 8        reconciliation and mutual understanding; and

9            (11) notes the General Accounting Office (GAO)
10        audit required by section 580 of the FY 2003 Foreign 11        Operations Appropriations Act (Public Law 108-7), 12        and strongly encourages the GAO to conduct, as part 13        of this audit, an investigation and inspection of all 14        recent United States assistance to UNRWA to ensure 15        that taxpayer funds are being spent effectively and 16        are not directly or indirectly supporting terrorism,
17        anti-Semitic or anti-Jewish teachings, or the glorifi-

19 CLEAR TESTS IN KAZAKHSTAN.

20 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

21 (1) In 1991, immediately after achieving inde-
22 pendence, Kazakhstan closed and sealed the world’s 23 second largest nuclear test site in Semipalatinsk 24 which had been inherited from the former Soviet

1        Union and at which more than 500 nuclear tests had 2        been conducted from 1949 to 1991.

3            (2) The cumulative power of explosions from 4        those tests, conducted above ground, on the ground,
5        and underground is believed to be equal to the power 6        of 20,000 explosions of the type of bomb dropped on 7        Hiroshima, Japan, in 1945.

8            (3) More than 1,500,000 people in Kazakhstan
9        suffered because of decades of Soviet nuclear weapons
10       testing in the region.

11           (4) A horrifying array of disease will continue 12       to destroy the lives of hundreds of thousands and their 13       descendants for many generations to come as a result 14       of these tests.

15           (5) Since its independence, Kazakhstan has con-
16       structed a stable and peaceful state, voluntarily dis-
17       armed the world's fourth largest nuclear arsenal,
18       joined the Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty
19       (START), and became an example of responsible non- 20       proliferation of such weapons.

21           (6) Kazakhstan is also doing its best to help
22       those who were exposed to the horrific nuclear experi-
23       ments of the 20th century but it faces daunting chal-
24       lenges.

1       (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress
2 that the Secretary of State should work to establish a joint 3 working group with the Government of Kazakhstan to assist
4 in assessing the environmental damage and health effects
5 caused by Soviet nuclear testing in Semipalatinsk.

6 SEC. 735. SENSE OF CONGRESS RELATING TO VIOLENCE
7 AGAINST WOMEN.

8       The Congress—

9           (1) recalls that Article 4 of the United Nations
10 Declaration on the Elimination of Violence Against 11 Women (20 December 1993) outlines that states 12 should condemn violence against women and should 13 not invoke any custom, tradition, or religious consid- 14 eration to avoid their obligations with respect to its 15 elimination;

16           (2) recalls that Chapter 4, Section 125, of the 17 Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action, Fourth
18 World Conference on Women (15 September 1995)
19 states that governments condemn violence against 20 women and refrain from invoking any custom, tradi-
21 tion, or religious consideration to avoid their obliga-
22 tions with respect to its elimination as set out in the 23 Declaration on the Elimination of Violence against 24 Women;

1           (3) recalls that the United States has supported
2       both the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of Violence and the Beijing Declaration and 3       Platform for Action; and 4

5           (4) reinforces the position of the United States
6       that the United States condemns violence against 7       women and refrains from invoking any custom, tradi-8       tion, or religious consideration to avoid this nation's 9       obligations with respect to its elimination as set out
10      in the Declaration on the Elimination of Violence
11      against Women.

5               (1) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

6                       (A) Highly enriched uranium is the most 7                       likely source material for terrorist or other out- 8                       law organizations that seek to acquire a nuclear

10                      (B) Such organizations are not likely to

5   SEC. 1339. REPORT ON MISSILE DEFENSE COOPERATION.

6       Not later than December 31, 2003, and December 31,
7 2004, the Secretary of State shall submit to the appropriate 8 congressional committees a report on cooperative efforts that 9 have been undertaken by the United States with foreign gov-
10 ernments to foster the development and deployment of de-
11 fenses against missile attack. Such report shall include a 12 detailed description of such efforts on a country-by-country
13 basis, and may be submitted in classified and unclassified
14 form, as appropriate.

15   SEC. 1340. IRAN'S PROGRAM TO DEVELOP A NUCLEAR EX-
16                   PLOSIVE DEVICE.

17       (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

18           (1) Iran, as a party to the Treaty on the Non-19 Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, has legally for-20 sworn developing or acquiring nuclear weapons.

21           (2) Iran has for more than a decade pursued a 22 program aimed at the development of a nuclear explo-23 sive device.

24           (3) Director of Central Intelligence George Tenet 25 has repeatedly warned of Iran's clandestine efforts to

1        acquire weapons of mass destruction, stating as re-
2        cently as February 11, 2003, in testimony before Con-
3        gress that “Iran is continuing to pursue development
4        of a nuclear fuel cycle for civilian and nuclear weap-
5        ons purposes . . . [and further that] Tehran may be 6        able to indigenously produce enough fissile material
7        for a nuclear weapon” within this decade.

8            (4) On March 17, 2003, Dr. el Baradei, Director
9        General of the International Atomic Energy Agency
10       (IAEA), called on Iran to agree to a more intrusive
11       monitoring regime at its nuclear sites and demanded 12       that Iran, which is a signatory to the Nuclear Non- 13       Proliferation Treaty, agree to an “additional pro- 14       tol” under the IAEA’s nuclear inspection rights, 15       which would enable more intrusive monitoring.

16           (5) In early 2003 Iran announced plans to mine 17       its own natural uranium and admitted constructing 18       two nuclear facilities, one a gas centrifuge uranium
19       enrichment facility and the other a heavy water pro-
20       duction plant.

21           (6) A uranium enrichment facility would give 22       Iran the capability to indigenously produce nuclear-
23       weapons grade uranium. Further, heavy water is used 24       in reactors that not only produce weapons-grade plu-

1        tonium, but also tritium, a key ingredient in boosted-
2        fission weapons.

3            (7) At the same time, Iran has been developing 4        long-range missiles that could deliver nuclear explo- 5        sive devices. Director of Central Intelligence Tenet has 6        warned that Iran could flight test an intercontinental
7        ballistic missile later this decade.

8            (8) Iran has received considerable assistance in 9        its nuclear program and in its missile development 10       program from the Russian Federation, the People's 11       Republic of China, and North Korea.

12           (9) Congress has long been seized with finding 13       ways to deter or delay Iran's acquisition or develop- 14       ment of such deadly weapons, including through the 15       enactment of the Iran-Iraq Arms Non-Proliferation
16       Act of 1992, the Iran Libya Sanctions Act of 1996,
17       the Iran Non-Proliferation Act of 2000, and the Iran
18       Nuclear Proliferation Prevention Act of 2002.

19           (10) Successive Administrations have similarly 20       sought to deter or delay Iran's acquisition or develop-
21       ment of such weapons by such measures as elevating
22       Iran's proliferation behavior in bilateral relations
23       with the Russian Federation and the People's Repub-
24       lic of China, sanctioning entities of the Russian Fed-
25       eration providing technology or expertise to Iran's

1        nuclear and missile programs, and urging multilat-
2        eral export control regimes to deny sensitive tech-
3        nology to proliferators like Iran.

4            (11) President Bush included Iran as one of the 5        countries that comprise the “axis of evil” in his Jan-
6        uary 2002 State of the Union Address because of its 7        efforts to develop weapons of mass destruction and its 8        support of international terrorism. Iran has been the 9        principle supporter and supplier to Hizballah in 10       southern Lebanon, Hamas, and Islamic Jihad. Fur- 11       ther, the leaders of Iran have publicly called for the 12       destruction of the State of Israel.

13           (12) A nuclear-armed Iran would pose a grave
14       threat to the national security of the United States
15       and to our allies in the region.

16       (b) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—Congress—

17           (1) finds that Iran’s support of terrorism and its 18       efforts to develop nuclear weapons are a grave threat 19       to the national security of the United States and its 20       allies and to the United States Armed Forces;

21           (2) declares that the United States and our 22       friends and allies must make maximum efforts to pre-
23       vent Iran from developing or acquiring nuclear weap-
24       ons and the missiles to deliver them;

1           (3) urges the President to use all appropriate
2 means to prevent Iran from gaining such capabilities;

3           (4) urges the International Atomic Energy Agen-
4 cy (IAEA) to employ the full range of its inspection 5 authorities to ensure that Iran's nuclear program is 6 used for peaceful purposes only;

7           (5) encourages Iran to sign and ratify the new 8 nuclear safeguards protocol, the "Model Additional 9 Protocol (INFCIRC/540-Corr)" to the Treaty on the 10 Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, which would 11 demonstrate Iran's commitment to sharing informa-
12 tion about its nuclear program with the IAEA and 13 the international community and to full disclosure 14 and transparency about its nuclear program; and

15           (6) urges the United States resident representa-
16 tive to the IAEA to work with the Board of Governors 17 of the IAEA on guidelines for early identification of 18 noncompliance with the Nuclear Non-Proliferation 19 Treaty.

4 SEC. 1411. FINDINGS.

5 Congress makes the following findings:

6 (1) The spread of offensive ballistic missiles suit-
7 able for launching nuclear, chemical, and biological 8 warheads is accelerating across the globe.

9 (2) According to the Carnegie Endowment for 10 International Peace, more than 25 countries possess
11 missiles with ranges in excess of 300 kilometers and 12 capable of delivering a nuclear warhead.

13 (3)(A) Many of the countries now possessing 14 such missiles, and engaging in the sale and transfer 15 of such missiles and their production technology to 16 other countries, are directly hostile to the United 17 States, its interests, and its allies.

18 (B) Of particular concern in this regard is North 19 Korea, which regularly sells ballistic missiles and 20 technology to countries in regions of instability and 21 concern to the United States.

22 (4) The Central Intelligence Agency has stated in 23 its most recent report on the foreign ballistic missile 24 threat the following:

1           “Emerging ballistic missile states continue
2           to increase the range, reliability, and accuracy of 3           the missile systems in their inventories—posing 4           ever greater risks to U.S. forces, interests, and 5           allies throughout the world. A decade ago, U.S.
6           and allied forces abroad faced threats from 7           SRBM’s [Short Range Ballistic Missiles]—pri-
8           marily the Scud and its variants. Today, coun-
9           tries have deployed or are on the verge of deploy-
10          ing MRBM’s [Medium Range Ballistic Missiles],
11          placing greater numbers of targets at risk.

12           “Proliferation of ballistic missile-related 13           technologies, materials, and expertise—especially 14           by Russian, Chinese, and North Korean enti-
15           ties—has enabled emerging missile states to ac-
16           celerate the development timelines for their exist-
17           ing programs, acquire turnkey systems to gain
18           previously non-existent capabilities—in the case
19           of the Chinese sale of the M-11 SRBM to Paki-
20           stan—and lay the groundwork for the expansion
21           of domestic infrastructures to potentially accom-
22           modate even more capable and longer range fu- 23           ture systems.”.

24           (5) The same CIA report also noted the fol- 25           lowing: “North Korea has assumed the role as the

1        missile and manufacturing technology source for 2        many programs. North Korean willingness to sell 3        complete systems and components has enabled other 4        states to acquire longer range capabilities earlier than 5        otherwise would have been possible—notably the sale
6        of the No Dong MRBM to Pakistan. The North also 7        has helped countries to acquire technologies to serve as 8        the basis for domestic development efforts—as with 9        Iran’s reverse-engineering of the No Dong in the 10       Shahab-3 program. Meanwhile, Iran is expanding its 11       efforts to sell missile technology.”.

12            (6) Since 1987, 33 countries have committed to 13        abide by a voluntary set of guidelines known as the 14        Missile Technology Control Regime (MTCR), whereby 15        adherents agreed to refrain from the transfer to non- 16        adherents of certain categories of whole missiles, their 17        constituent parts, and the facilities to manufacture
18        them, especially “Category I” missiles, which at a 19        range of 300 kilometers or more and a payload capac-
20        ity of 500 kilograms or more are especially suited for 21        delivering nuclear weapons.

22            (7) In October 2002, 93 countries committed to 23        observe a nonbinding code of conduct derived from,
24        but less restrictive than, the nonbinding MTCR. While 25        this is a welcome achievement, it does not provide a

1       legal obligation on its adherents to refrain from the 2       trade in missiles or missile technology.

3           (8) On December 10, 2002, the White House re- 4       leased its “National Strategy to Combat Weapons of 5       Mass Destruction”, wherein it is stated that strength- 6       ening international nonproliferation controls on 7       weapons of mass destruction (WMD) and upon the 8       missiles that can deliver them is the second of three 9       principal pillars of the National Strategy. The Na-
10      tional Strategy also states that “effective interdiction
11      is a critical part of the U.S. strategy to combat WMD
12      and their delivery means”.

13          (9) On December 11, 2002, the United States
14      took control of an unflagged freighter that was at- 15      tempting clandestinely to ship, from North Korea to 16      Yemen, SCUD missiles of a type that would be gen-
17      erally prohibited from transfer as Category I missiles.

18          (10) Neither North Korea nor Yemen is an ad-
19      herent to the MTCR guidelines, which in any case are 20      not legally binding, and there is no binding inter-
21      national legal instrument that would prohibit ship-
22      ments of the missiles referred to in paragraph (9).

23          (11) At Yemen’s request, the United States re- 24      leased the shipment of North Korean Scud missiles to 25      Yemen.

1           (12) Also on December 11, 2002, the White
2           House press spokesman stated that existing inter-
3           national law regarding halting the spread of missile 4           proliferation could be strengthened. The new National 5           Strategy to Combat Weapons of Mass Destruction also 6           commits the United States to support those regimes
7           that are currently in force, and to work to improve 8           the effectiveness of, and compliance with, those re-9           gimes, and identifies the MTCR as a regime that the 10          United States will seek to strengthen.

11          (13) Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld, tes-
12          tifying on February 12, 2003, before the Committee
13          on Armed Services of the Senate, stated the following:
14          “...[I]t’s pretty clear that the proliferation regimes 15          that exist in the world worked pretty well before, [but] 16          they’re not working very well right now.... [U]nless
17          the world wakes up and says this is a dangerous 18          thing and creates a set of regimes that will in fact get 19          cooperation to stop those weapons, we’re going to be 20          facing a very serious situation in the next five 21          years.”.

22          (14) The MTCR has made an invaluable con-23          tribution to restraint in the international trade of of-24          fensive ballistic missiles. Strengthening international 25          controls on ballistic missiles, however, will require a

1        dramatic expansion of adherents that rigorously abide
2        by the MTCR's guidelines, and a binding legal basis
3        for the United Nations and countries devoted to non- 4        proliferation to prevent, and when necessary act to 5        prevent, further proliferation of offensive ballistic
6        missiles around the world.

7            (15) Therefore, it should be the policy of the 8        United States to promote the creation of new inter-
9        national mechanisms that would, in all future cir-
10       cumstances, allow the peace-loving and law-abiding 11       nations of the world the authority to interdict and 12       prevent the transfer of such missiles.

13    SEC. 1412. POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES.

14        It shall be the policy of the United States to seek a 15        binding international instrument or instruments to restrict 16        the trade in offensive ballistic missiles with ranges of 300
17        kilometers or more that have a payload capacity of 500 kilo-
18        grams or more. Such a binding international instrument
19        may take the form of a multilateral treaty, a United Na-
20        tions Security Council resolution, or other instrument of 21        international law, and should provide for enforcement
22        measures including interdiction, seizure, and impoundment
23        of illicit shipments of offensive ballistic missiles and related 24        technology, equipment, and components.

1 SEC. 1413. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

2 It is the sense of the Congress that the United States
3 should immediately introduce a resolution in the United 4 Nations Security Council to prohibit all members of the 5 United Nations from purchasing, receiving, assisting or al-
6 lowing the transfer of, and to authorize the subsequent 7 interdiction, seizure, and impoundment of, any missile, 8 missile-related equipment, means of producing missiles, or 9 missile-related technology from North Korea.

7 SEC. ~~1702~~ 1602. FINDINGS.

8 Congress makes the following findings:

9 (1) The security of the State of Israel is a major
10 and enduring national security interest of the United 11 States.

12 (2) A lasting peace in the Middle East region
13 can only take root in an atmosphere free of violence
14 and terrorism.

15 (3) The Palestinian people have been ill-served
16 by leaders who, by resorting to violence and terrorism
17 to pursue their political objectives, have brought eco- 18 nomie and personal hardship to their people and 19 brought a halt to efforts seeking a negotiated settle-
20 ment of the conflict.

21 (4) The United States has an interest in a Mid-
22 dle East in which two states, Israel and Palestine,
23 will live side by side in peace and security.

24 (5) In his speech of June 24, 2002, and in other
25 statements, President George W. Bush outlined a com-

1        prehensive vision of the possibilities of peace in the 2        Middle East region following a change in Palestinian 3        leadership.

4            (6) A stable and peaceful Palestinian state is 5        necessary to achieve the security that Israel longs for,
6        and Israel should take concrete steps to support the 7        emergence of a viable, credible Palestinian state.

8            (7) The Palestinian state must be a reformed,

15       (Abu Mazen), and his cabinet.

16           (9) In his remarks prior to the vote of the Pales- 17       tinian Legislative Council, Mr. Abbas declared: "The 18       government will concentrate on the question of secu-
19       rity . . . The unauthorized possession of weapons,
20       with its direct threat to the security of the population,
21       is a major concern that will be relentlessly addressed
22       . . . There will be no other decision-making authority
23       except for the Palestinian Authority."

24           (10) In those remarks, Mr. Abbas further stated:
25       "We denounce terrorism by any party and in all its

5               (11) Israel has repeatedly indicated its willing- 6       ness to make painful concessions to achieve peace once

8       SEC. ~~1703~~ 1603. PURPOSES.

9       The purposes of this title are—

24       lined in President Bush’s June 24, 2002, speech;

8           on the confirmation of the Palestinian Authority's

18          ally-recognized boundaries free from threats or acts of

21          urity interest in a permanent, comprehensive, and just 22          resolution of the Arab-Israeli conflict, and particu-
23          larly the Palestinian-Israeli conflict, based on the 25          242 and 338.

1 ~~SEC. 1705~~ 1605. RECOGNITION OF A PALESTINIAN STATE.

2 It is the sense of Congress that a Palestinian state
3 should not be recognized by the United States until the

6 entity, not compromised by terrorism, has been elected
7 and taken office; and
